Assuming The Position A Memoir

Reading Assuming the Position: A Memoir of Hustling can be challenging at times, because it's written in a sort of 'stream of consciousness' style. But the book is filled with raw emotion, and you do get to look into the heart of the author.

Assuming the Position: A Memoir of Hustling: Whitaker ...

A memoir of life as a New York gay prostitute, Assuming the Position appears to have been written primarily as a step in the healing process of the author. Whitaker does a good job of conveying both the frenetic desperation of drug addiction and the emotional detachment that many prostitutes have to adopt in order to go through the motions of their trade.
