It is very heartbreaking, and becomes even worse once you remember that this is a TRUE story about a REAL little girl. Nonetheless, Cathy's an excellent writer and I loved reading this book. It's going to be one that i will reread again and again and am looking forward to reading other works from this author. One person found this helpful

The storyline is heartbreaking, but it's well written and holds your interest until the last page. However, there were one of two facts which I found rather hard to swallow - the main one being Cathy's wonderful children. As regular readers of this author will know, she has three children who, at the time this book was written, were all teenagers.
