One woman's perversion gets her caught up in a power struggle between a classmate and a mysterious man. This is my first transformation story, my debut story here and the fourth erotic story I've put into words. The story itself has been in my head for years but I was surprised at how many details I hadn't really filled in while writing it.

Doc's Lab

Pig Tales is about a young, naive, ambitious sex worker who slowly turns into a pig. It is set in some dystopian setting but that doesn't really play a big role (you don't even start to notice until the end of the novel), because everything is focalized from her perspective and she's just not that into politics.
